JOAN & DOUG '90 McLEOD

WAYNE FISHER, founding partner of Fisher, Boyd, Brown, Boudreaux & Huguenard LLP, has served South Texas College of Law for 19 years as a member of its Board of Directors. A native of Cameron, Texas, Mr. Fisher established his legal career with Fulbright & Jaworski before starting his own firm in 1996. He is one of the best-known and most respected trial lawyers in the state and has served as the president of the State Bar of Texas, the Texas Trial Lawyers Association, and the International Academy of Trial Lawyers. He is a member of the Inner Circle of Advocates and is board-certified in Personal Injury Trial Law. Mr. Fisher has been instrumental in the success of South Texas over the past two decades, assisting in the hiring of new deans, in modernizing and expanding the college's facilities, and in assuring that a quality education is being offered in a competitive field.

JAMES SALES, of counsel to Fulbright & Jaworski, has helped set the goals and guide the growth of South Texas College of Law for the past 23 years as a member of its Board of Directors. Mr. Sales' legal career spans four decades with Fulbright & Jaworski, where he led the litigation department. His practice focuses on tort-related litigation matters, including complex products liability cases in state and federal court. He is a leader in the legal profession as the former president of the State Bar of Texas and Houston Bar Association. Currently, he serves as a member of the American Bar Association's House of Delegates and is a sustaining member of the Texas Bar Foundation. As chair of South Texas College of Law's Strategic Planning Committee in 2003-2004, Mr. Sales led the effort to develop the five-year strategic plan that is guiding the college in carrying out its future initiatives.
